BIG BLUE CAMP DIRECTORS:

RICK SQUIERS has completed his 16th season as head coach at the University of Nebraska Kearney. He has guided the Lopers to a 536-79 record including 12 conference championships & 17 straight trips to the NCAA tournament. His tenure includes a National Runner-up finish, 2 Final Fours, 3 Elite Eights, and 8 Sweet Sixteen qualifications. The Lopers were also ranked #1 in the nation for the duration of the 2004, much of 2005, and 3 weeks of 2012. He has garnered conference Coach of the Year honors 9 times. Squiers has a career mark of 843-172 and over 25 years of experience directing summer camps.

KALEIGH ANDERSON enters her fourth season as assistant coach at Nebraska Kearney after a stellar playing career as Defensive Specialist/Libero. During her playing days, the Lopers earned 4 Conference Championships and 2 NCAA Sweet 16 finishes. Kaleigh is also the director of Little Blue Volleyball Academy/Club in Kearney.

STEPH BRAND begins her first season as graduate assistant coach for UNK. Her standout playing career includes a state championship at Grand Island Central Catholic High School, and four trips to the NCAA tournament as a collegian (three for the Lopers). Brand spent the 2015 season as an assistant for her alma mater GICC crusaders.
