RICK SQUIERS CAMP DIRECTOR

Rick Squiers will begin his 21st season as UNK head coach and camp director. He has guided the Lopers to a 637-88 record which includes 15 conference championships, 20 NCAA tournament bids, three Elite Eight appearances, and a National runner-up finish in 2005. Squiers has coached 34 AVCA All-American selections including National Players of the Year Erin Gudmundson (2005) and Annie Wolfe (2016). Prior to his tenure at UNK he served as head coach for nearby Hastings College where he led the program to a 206-59 record and three conference titles in six seasons. In 29 seasons as a head coach, Squiers has amassed an overall win loss record of 944-181 ranking him in the top ten for both career winning percentage (5th) and career victories among active head coaches (9th).

CAMP STAFF 2019

As one of the most popular and successful camps in the Midwest, Coach Squiers will assemble an outstanding staff of college and high school coaches that will work with you to develop your skills and fundamentals. Coach Squiers believes in hiring the best and most enthused coaches possible. Much of the success and popularity of this camp is owed to the outstanding coaches that have helped with the camp. Each day fundamentals, skills and techniques will be emphasized and covered thoroughly by our outstanding coaches and counselors. Games and team play will also be emphasized throughout the day as well.
