2019 CAMP DIRECTORS

RICK SQUIERS has been a head volleyball coach for 29 years including 20 seasons at the University of Nebraska Kearney. To date, he has guided the Lopers to a 637-88 record, 20 NCAA Tournament births, 15 conference championships, three Elite Eight appearances, and a national runner up finish in 2005. A 14-time Coach of the Year, Squiers has coached 35 All-American selections including AVCA National Players of the Year Erin Gudmundson (2005) and Annie Wolfe (2016). Prior to UNK, Squiers served as head coach for nearby Hastings College where he led the Broncos to a 206-59 record and three conference titles in six seasons. Squiers has amassed an overall win loss record of 944-181.

STEPH BRAND has completed three seasons as assistant coach at the University of Nebraska Kearney. During her tenure, the Lopers have claimed three MIAA crowns while accumulating 101 victories to only nine losses. She has several years' experience as a club director and coach including roles with Nebraska Gold Volleyball Club of Kearney and GI Juniors. She spent the 2015 season as an assistant coach for her alma mater GICC Crusaders before joining the Loper program in 2016. Brand's standout playing career includes a high school state championship, multiple conference titles, and four trips to the NCAA tournament as a collegian (three for the Lopers and one at Wayne State).

KENZIE CRAWFORD enters her 2nd season as graduate assistant coach for the Lopers after an outstanding playing career at Creighton University. Crawford played multiple positions for the Bluejays including setter and defensive specialist.

THEISON ANDERSON enters his 3rd year as graduate assistant coach for UNK. In addition to his role with the Lopers, he teaches at Meadowlark Elementary School in Kearney.
